The Presenter

"Being a geek is all about being honest about what you enjoy and not being afraid to demonstrate that affection. It means never having to play it cool about how much you like something. It's basically a license to proudly emote on a somewhat childish level rather than behave like a supposed adult. Being a geek is extremely liberating." - Simon Pegg

The Reason

“The formulation of the problem is often more essential than its solution, which may be merely a matter of mathematical or experimental skill.”

- Albert Einstein

The Perspective

“The fact that we live at the bottom of a deep gravity well, on the surface of a gas covered planet going around a nuclear fireball 90 million miles away and think this to be normal is obviously some indication of how skewed our perspective tends to be.”

- Douglas Adams

The Identity

“Be sure that whatever you are is you.”

- Theodore Roethke

The Company

“If you choose to not deal with an issue, then you give up your right of control over the issue and it will select the path of least resistance.”

- Susan Del Gatto

The Mentality

“A pessimist sees the difficulty in every opportunity; an optimist sees the opportunity in every difficulty.”

- Winston Churchill

The Collaboration

“There's a digital revolution taking place both in and out of government in favor of open-sourced data, innovation, and collaboration.”

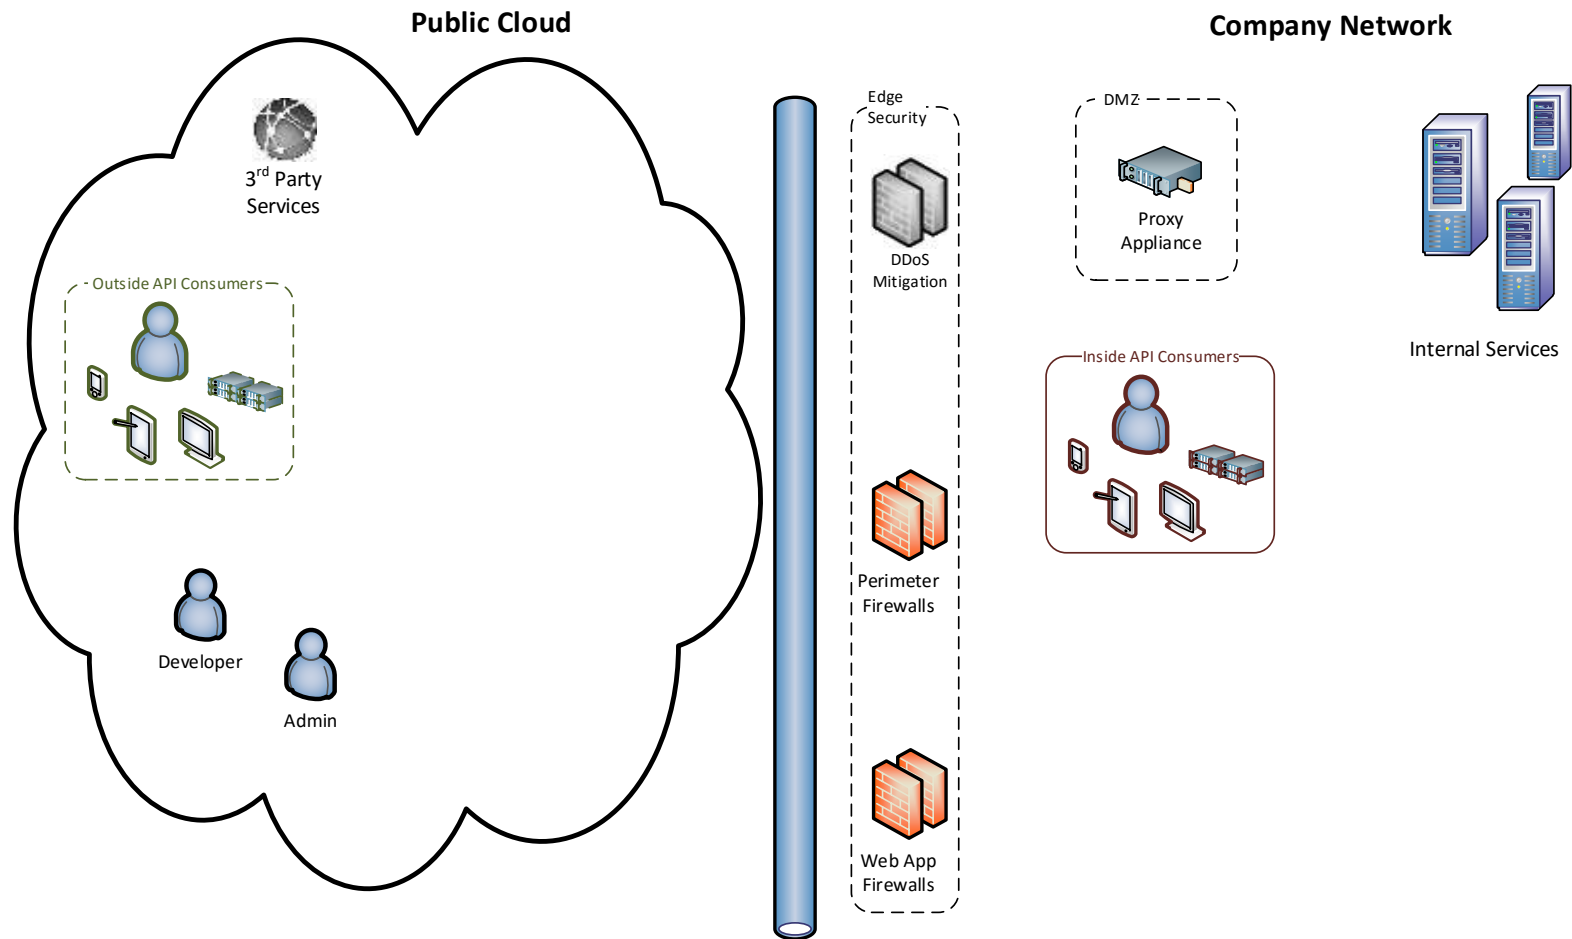

- Kathleen Sebelius

The Management

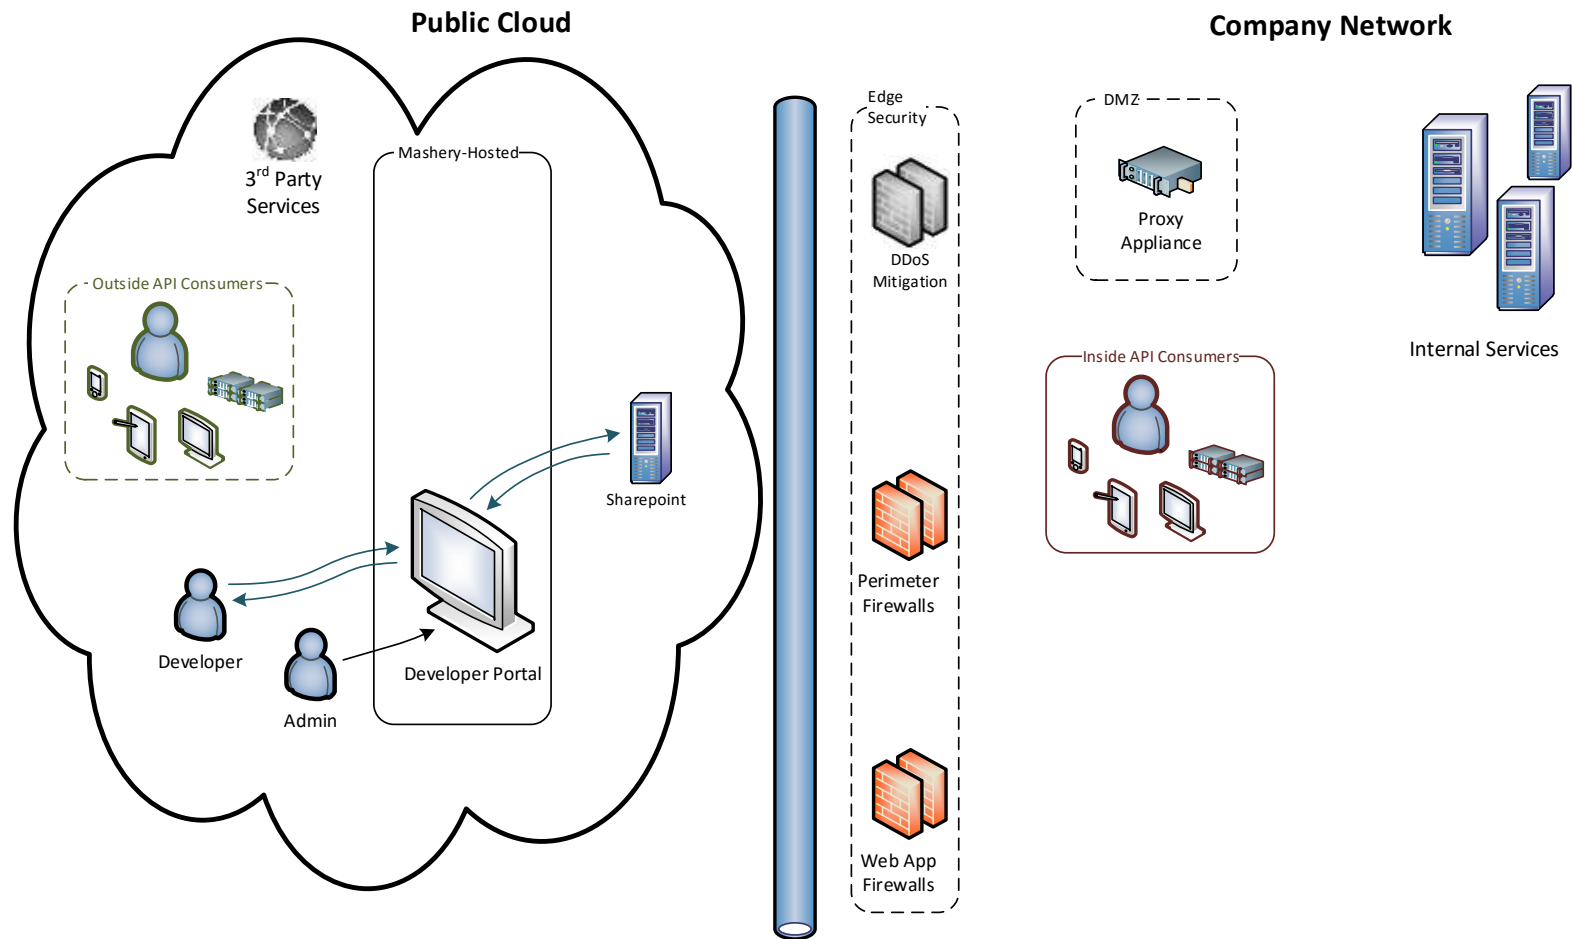

“We can not solve our problems with the same level of thinking that created them”

- Albert Einstein

The Disclaimer

“It's so much easier to suggest solutions when you don't know too much about the problem.”

- Malcolm Forbes

The Questions

The wise man doesn't give the right answers, he poses the right questions.

- Claude Levi-Strauss
